HUMAN RIGHTS AWARD

Award Description and Ordering Procedures

Recognition of “Human Rights” award recipients at all levels (local, state, regional, and national) is encouraged. The Human Rights Award is presented at the annual CWU Human Rights Celebration Day.

Local Unit, State Unit, Regional, National: $25

Award Includes: Human Rights Award Certificate & CWU Logo Lapel Pin

The Human Rights Award recognizes individuals who have been working in the field of human rights in their communities. Awardees are not always in the public eye, but these individuals have consistently demonstrated a high regard for the dignity of others. Awardees may be persons who have taught Sunday School for 30 years, has volunteered in a local food pantry, or might be a leader in the community who has demonstrated for civil rights. It might be the teenager who organizes summer programs for disadvantaged youth. The list is endless.

Requirements: Biographical/background information and fee payment are required for each honoree. Units should send the required information and include a check in the amount of $25, made payable to Church Women United, Inc., at least one month prior to the date needed to:
